TOWNSHIP PLAN WILL FACE TEST

Freeholders Re-open
Disputed Point
In Charter

Fate of whether the supervisors are to be nominated by districts and elected at large or if the present system of electing by districts is to be continued was placed squarely up to the voters themselves by the board of freeholders in reconsidering this phase of the proposed charter Wednesday.

The charter will be presented to the voters calling for election of supervisors by districts as at present.

But on the ballot will be a proposed amendment which would provide for the nomination of supervisors by districts but their election at large.

The latter plan was first proposed by the freeholders, and was later dropped in favor of the present set-up.

Re-open Discussion
However, on motion of Carl Elving of Burlingame, the matter was re-opened for discussion last night. William H. Eddy of Burlingame proposed the "at large" vote.

Elving, Mark Ryan, Redwood City; Charles Eldridge, Burlingame, and Eddy led the fight for the change.

Henry Hall, San Bruno; Mona Christensen, North Palo Alto, and Alvin Hatch, Half Moon Bay, defended the present plan.

James B. Howell of Atherton, chairman of the board, then proposed placing the alternative before the people.

Sam H. Winkler of Redwood City moved for the amendment of Eddy's motion and the freeholders voted to place the two proposals before the electorate.

His Appointment
Considerable opposition developed to the freeholders' plan to make certain elective offices appointive under the charter.

Among the speakers from the public ranks against this step were John H. Tamm, and Jack Reuter of Redwood City; S. J. Jamieson, president of the Berkeley Park Development Association; Allen T. Hill, secretary of the San Mateo county local of the International Typographical Union, and Mrs. Carl R. Scott of Menlo Park.

Each believed that a better plan would be for the freeholders to place this matter before the electorate to be decided in the same manner in which the supervisory question is to be settled.

Chairman Howell explained, however, that the charter was written around a chief executive type of government, and that to change to the elective form, for purely administrative offices, would mean completely rewriting the document.

Howell said the success of the chief executive will be based upon his ability to get the limit of services from his appointees, and that he should not be forced to attempt to have an elective group of officials carry out his orders.

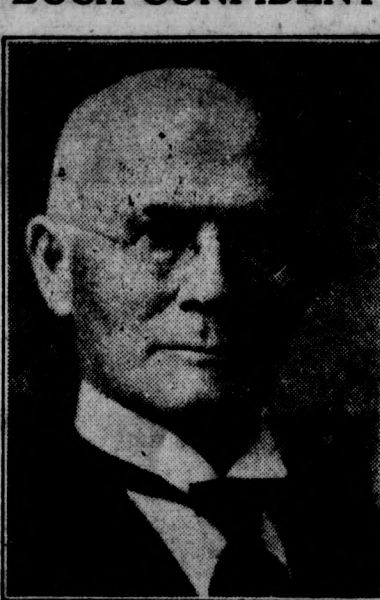

Policy-making will be determined by the supervisors and the remaining elective officials.

Eldridge of Burlingame, speaking on this phase, said the freeholders had determined upon the set-up on advice of the California Commission on County Home Rule, the advice of Prof. Edwin A. Cottrell of Stanford, a recognized authority, and by the experience of the County of Los Angeles.

TENNANT DIVORCE SUIT
Richard Tennant, employed on the Boulder Dam at Las Vegas, Nev., was sued for divorce here today by his wife, Elva Tennant, who asks custody of their three children.

Congressman Arthur M. Free of San Jose, spokesman of this district in congress, is a candidate for re-election on August 30.

BUCK CONFIDENT

Judge George H. Buck, candidate for re-election to the superior court of San Mateo county.

'Old Timers' Back Judge

An appeal was broadcast today to the "old timers" to support the candidacy of Superior Judge George H. Buck for re-election on August 30.

"We are living in a period when the affairs of the country are unsettled and our citizens are apt to act hastily and without calm deliberation. It is the 'old timers' who have successfully weathered such periods before and who can be relied upon to see us through this crisis," the appeal said.

Judge Buck has been outstanding in public life here for a half century, all of which has been spent in the service of the county.

During the campaign for re-election Judge Buck has left the work entirely to his friends while he continued on with his court calendar. He succeeded to their wishes that he run again, and has left his campaign entirely in their hands.

When questioned about campaigning, he said he was too busy to devote much time to anything but his court work.

Nevertheless he feels his friends have worked well on his behalf and believes that he will retain the same confidence the electorate has expressed for him during his long public service.

Workers for his re-election share in his optimism.

On the eve of one of the greatest campaigns in his office, Judge gave out the following statement: "I am confident my long career has merited for me the continued faith of the good people of San Mateo county. I say this in spite of the fact I have done little actual campaigning on behalf of this election, because I have a duty to perform that supersedes political endeavor. I feel proud of my record here, and feel that nothing I could say would be considered as much, in my desire to continue the work to which I have devoted my life."

M'Grath Goal Is Congress

Judge John J. McGrath of San Mateo, candidate for congress on both the Republican and Democratic ballots, believes there are two main reasons for the economic crisis through which the country is now passing.

These are the boycott of 43 foreign nations of American goods because of the Smoot-Hawley tariff, and prohibition.

"Prohibition has caused the government to lose 14 billion dollars since it has been in effect, and has caused the high tax now being paid on many goods," McGrath said.

EDUCATION COSTS CUT BY $60,000

San Mateo county taxpayers will raise $60,000 less for schools in 1932-33 than a year ago, County Superintendent of Schools Pansy Jewett Abbott informed the board of supervisors at the afternoon budget hearing at the courthouse Wednesday.

Miss Abbott also reported that she had reduced her departmental salary and maintenance budget to effect a 10 per cent slash. This year's budget is $2760 compared to $3,157.19 a year ago.

Savings in school taxation were effected by reducing the $69 heretofore allowed high schools per pupil per average daily attendance to $60, the $9 less affecting 3596 high school students for a reduction of $32,864.

How Cuts Were Made
Also instead of raising $3240 for evening school units in addition to the $60 per pupil, Miss Abbott has taken this sum out in advance from the total raised. Likewise the sum of $7000-$1000 of each of seven high schools—which is used for maintenance purposes, will not be raised by separate taxation but will come from the $60 per pupil fund.

Savings in addition to these in the high school division were effected by reducing the library and supervision units of the elementary school by $18,080. There are 10,487 elementary school pupils.

The sums to be raised for high school, elementary and junior college purposes in 1932-33, and the figures for 1931-32 are:

	1932-33	1931-32
High Schools...	$314,085	$337,731
Elementary Schools...	$335,797	$326,197
Junior College...	$2,275	$8,914

The high schools will call for a 47-cent 3-mill tax, a reduction of 5 cents 7 mills from 1931-32. The elementary school tax is 73 cents 5 mills, a 1-cent 5-mill increase. The junior college tax is 11 cents 5 mills, an increase of 3 cents 5 mills.

These taxes are those spread over the county and do not include the special maintenance and building taxes levied in the various school districts.

Middlefield Road Stages To Operate

C. E. Brooks, who has the franchise to conduct a stage line to Emerald Lake, has been granted a permit by the state railroad commission to operate an auto passenger service between Redwood City and Palo Alto by way of Middlefield road. Brooks sometime ago was denied a permit by the commission to operate a line from Redwood City to the Veterans' hospital.

Sullivan In Senate Race

D. E. Sullivan, Republican candidate for state senator from San Mateo county, is an attorney of ability and an educator and dramatist of recognized talent. Mr. Sullivan's oratorical gift would make him a leader in the senate. He has every qualification for the position to which he aspires. Mr. Sullivan is a veteran of the late war and has the support of his "buddies." His vote next Tuesday ought to be substantial.

Paul McCarthy States Issues

Paul A. McCarthy, throughout his campaign for judge of department 2 of the superior court, has emphasized two points: first, his independence and freedom from any political or other combinations in the county; and, secondly, the warning that sinister influences must not reach our courts.

While Mr. McCarthy has been active in civic affairs during his nine years of residence in the county, and particularly during the last four years since his participation in the preparation of Redwood City's present charter and his membership on the city council, he has not become a partisan in county politics.

The 26 years of Mr. McCarthy's practice of law have been filled with a versatile and active application of his talents to the solution of legal problems of his clients. In addition to a busy practice, he has been an instructor in the law of contracts and in equity during the last eight years, as a member of the faculty of the University of San Francisco Law School. His age—50 years—gives him maturity and yet a promise of many years of mental and physical activity.

Shortridge Is Overwhelming Favorite For Senate Seat

(EDITORIAL)

SAN MATEO county is the home county of Senator Samuel M. Shortridge and the voters are urged to give Mr. Shortridge a flattering vote on next Tuesday as a mark of appreciation for his services to the community during his many years in the United States Senate.

Mr. Shortridge has been loyal to the Republican party and to this section and has served the state well. Mr. Shortridge's long residence warrants a big vote for him on Tuesday next. His neighbors should accord him a substantial plurality and they will, for every section of San Mateo county is lining up for Mr. Shortridge.

The trend of the state is for Shortridge, but the senator's campaign chiefs, Joseph R. Knowland, Oakland publisher, in northern California, and C. C. Chapman, of Los Angeles, in southern California, warned that despite "widespread evidences of a complete collapse of the opposition," his supporters should not accept the situation as not calling for vigorous activity till election day.

Supplementing their emphatic prediction of victory, Shortridge's aides declared the last week had seen a marked diminution in what strength existed for opposing candidates, while at the same time there was a "measurable trend of sentiment" to the senator's candidacy.

This swing to the incumbent, it was stated, was featured by a concerted sweep by wet forces of the state to his banner, with this being particularly noticeable in San Francisco and other northern California metropolitan areas.

Senator Shortridge was reported as sharing the belief that a "band wagon movement" toward his candidacy is under way as the result of his four weeks of campaigning from San Diego to Eureka and back again.

His leaders declared this to be true in virtually every section of the state, both in the metropolitan areas and in the rural districts. Rapidly growing appreciation of the actual situation as regards prohibition repeal, which will in all probability be determined by the present congress this December, in which Shortridge will sit, and long before any newly-elected senator could take his seat, was held largely responsible.

Shortridge's own position in favor of immediate submission of repeal to the voters and his stated willingness to accept the vote of the people on the proposed Wright Act repeal as a mandate to him on codification of the Volstead Act was declared to have "captured" any doubtful territory.

As to the rural districts of the state, Shortridge's leaders foresew a veritable landslide for his renomination as a result of his twelve-year record of tariff achievements for California labor and California products.

Millington to Back Harbor

Wayne R. Millington, well-known attorney of Redwood City, who is a candidate for the office of assemblyman from San Mateo county, today rested his campaign upon a reaffirmation of the "principles of progress" outlined in his platform.

Millington declared the San Mateo county harbor was definitely an issue in the campaign. He said:

"While it is true that San Mateo county may unite in a harbor district, the fact remains it has not done so. Harbor development is a proposition too gigantic to be undertaken alone by our county. As highways have outgrown the horse-and-buggy stage and have become a matter of state-wide concern, so has the principle of 'one-county' harbor development been found inadequate. The only answer is state aid."

"This brings us to realize and appreciate the necessity and value of co-operation with the adjoining counties of Santa Clara, San Francisco and Santa Cruz and in fact all those interior counties clearing their products through San Francisco bay. Their interest is our interest; our harbor is their outlet."

"San Mateo county cannot afford to endorse a policy of isolation. We have one vote of 80 in the assembly and one of 40 in the senate. Our policy must be one of co-operation with progressive policies that we may secure all for San Mateo county that is possible."

POOLE CLUB HAS DANCE

Speeches Given In Behalf of Candidate for Supervisor

A crowd estimated at 600 attended the entertainment and dance given at the Washington School Saturday night by the John W. Poole for Supervisor Club.

Councilman Robert M. Jones was the chairman for the evening, and introduced the following speakers: C. M. Uhlenberg, Frank G. Warner, Ward Tucker, and Councilman Charles G. Lambert.

A tap dance was given by Miss Gertrude Chrenick, and an acrobatic number by Todzie Litz, Edna Rush and his orchestra furnished music. Refreshments were served by the women's auxiliary to the Poole club. Ward Tucker was floor manager.

SUES FOR DIVORCE

William J. Lanthau, 273 Poplar avenue, Millbrae, today brought suit for divorce against his wife, Katherine, alleging cruelty. They were married in San Francisco in October, 1928.

COUNTY TAX RATE FIXED AT $2.895

Culled for additional cent and mill savings, the 1932-33 San Mateo county budget was finally brought down Thursday by the board of supervisors so that the rate applicable last year was matched.

Additional slashes totaling 1 cent, 1 mill were made by the board Wednesday and Thursday so that the tentative rate of $2.906 announced Wednesday was reduced to $2.895, the tax levied in 1931-32.

This is a reduction of 40 cents in the rate applicable in the outside areas, but brings no reduction relief to the city dwellers.

The supervisors held, however, that taxpayers were fortunate in escaping a higher rate that appeared necessary because of increased demands made upon the board.

These demands included $70,000 for the August and November elections, a sum not raised a year ago; $25,000 for the Daily City bottlenecks; big increase in the Community Hospital and Social Service Commission funds, and additions in the junior college, elementary school, salary, unbudgeted and general funds.

The increases were 13 cents, 2 mills in the general funds, 6 mills in the salary fund, 1 cent, 1 mill in the school fund, 11 cents in the social service fund, 3 cents, 9 mills in the highway bond fund, 3 cents, 5 mills for junior college and 1 cent, 2 mills in the junior college fund.

Decreases were 8 mills in the Relief Home fund, 1 cent, 8 mills for Community Hospital maintenance, 1 mill from courthouse furnishing, 5 cents, 7 mills from high school maintenance, 2 cents, 8 mills from advertising (county chamber), and 8 mills from library maintenance.

Items missing are the Sunnyvale base purchase levy, for which the board was to have levied a 2 cent, 1 mill tax.

On hand, but not included in the levy because the money was raised last year, are the $25,000 La Honda road and the $30,000 Memorial park road funds.

The supervisors will meet Thursday at 10 o'clock to finally set the tax rate at the $2.895 figure.

Crowd Awaits Vet Picnic On Saturday

All indications point to a huge crowd at the box social and moonlight picnic to be given by Corporal James Lindsay Wilson Post, No. 2311, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at Mangin's Park, Portola, next Saturday evening. The admission will be 25 cents and a large number of tickets already have been disposed of. The proceeds going toward the post's relief fund. The public is cordially invited.

All candidates for office will be introduced, according to the announcement of the committee in charge, but no speaking will be permitted, as the post has gone on record as being non-political.

The affair will start at 6:30 o'clock.

Parkman Is Port Booster

Harry L. Parkman, former assemblyman, who is now a candidate for state senator, was elected in 1926 to the state legislature from San Mateo county.

"Since then," he says, "I have worked in every way possible to make San Mateo county an attractive and safe place in which to do business, establish homes, and raise families."

Parkman adjusted the county government bill to keep down costs, and in the 1931 session voted for 28 labor bills and against nine.

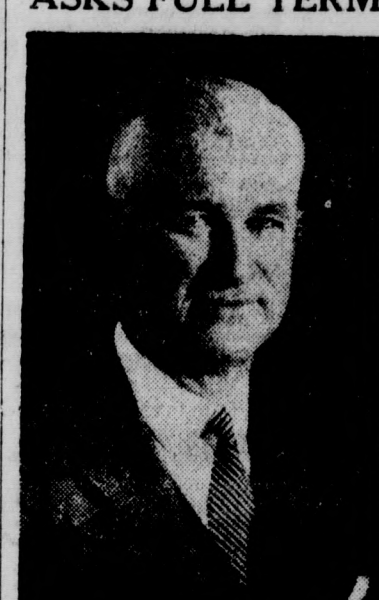

With relation to Redwood harbor, he says: "The growth of the Redwood City district, and increased property values, depend largely upon the location of industrial plants on our harbor and waterfront. My votes have made possible, and have encouraged, such development."

Harrison Call Is Candidate

Friends of Harrison W. Call, San Mateo county attorney and candidate for the assembly seat from this county, contend that he is the most able public speaker of the five candidates in the race and that he has won hundreds of supporters through his pleasing and dynamic personality.

After serving in the army during the war, he worked his way

Davis Actively In Judge Race

Among the candidates for superior judge, department 1, is Judge John F. Davis, city attorney of Burlingame for the past 20 years. He is making a strong showing.

Judge Davis has been in the public eye prominently during the past 10 years. He was chief of counsel in the county redistricting case and also in highway zoning cases.

Besides his success as a lawyer, Judge Davis has been a San Mateo county justice of the peace for nearly eight years. He retired undefeated. He served as chairman of the county charter study committee dealing with roads, highways and bridges.

Judge Davis moved to Burlingame in 1909, when he became city attorney. He served through seven administrations. Having tried many cases here, he is well known locally.

Crosby Pledge Outline Given

William Crosby, candidate for state senator, is basing his campaign on the fact that if elected he will represent all the people of San Mateo county without interference from outside interests.

Crosby is a Burlingame business man, active in civic affairs and pledges his support to every move that will benefit San Mateo county.

"If you choose me to represent you in the state senate, I give you my pledge that all my efforts will be for you and for our country. I promise to be your representative and to work for the many projects of development this county needs, before they become public clamor and I am forced to recognize them."

"I have no entangling alliances to prevent me from working for you, and I shall remember always that you sent me to Sacramento with the right to expect that I devote all my efforts to your interests."

MENLO PARK LUNCHROOM TERRORIZED

Palo Alto Man Shot
In Leg Resisting
Bandit

Brandishing one and two guns in the faces of half a dozen restaurant customers, an apparently dope or liquor-crazed hair-triggered desperado held up the "Chillville" lunch counter on El Camino Real just south of the Menlo Park business district early Thursday.

During the holdup, one man was shot through the leg, another was shot through the trousers but unharmed by the bullet, and half a dozen other persons were stricken with terror as the nervous bandit barked his commands.

The man entered the eating place at 11:30 o'clock. He carried a gun in one hand, looked about the place nervously and demanded the cash of those present.

"Life isn't worth anything to me," he said. "There's $2,000 on my head, so don't think I'd hesitate at anything."

Willard Edmonds, proprietor, and Arthur Otterstad, Emerald Lake, a customer, and the others began "shelling out" while the bandit took their money, dropping some of it on the floor in his nervousness.

Kidnaps Palo Alto
"You're not holding that gun right," Otterstad told the bandit, and the reply was a shot which penetrated the former's trousers, the lead however lodging itself in the floor instead of the man's leg.

With that, the bandit backed out of the place. At the moment, Frank Payan, 934 Emerson street, Palo Alto, drove up. The bandit commanded: "Get me out of here at once."

Payan hesitated just a moment. The bandit opened the door and fired a shot at Payan, the bullet piercing the fleshy part of the right leg.

With that, Payan drove away with the bandit beside him pressing the gun into his ribs.

They headed north on El Camino Real and then over onto the Bayshore highway. Near Tanforan, they entered a service station where a traffic officer was also getting gasoline.

"Don't move or I'll blast you," said the thug.

Payan did not move.

At South San Francisco, they passed a highway traffic officer, but the bandit merely eyed Payan and they went on.

At Market and New Montgomery streets, the bandit halted the car and got out. He took a card from Payan, but said he wasn't looking for money. He then disappeared.

Payan went to the Harbor Emergency Hospital to have the wound treated, having suffered considerable loss of blood in the wild ride.

Kidnaps Second Man

The next bandit was heard of was near the Ferry building, where he kidnapped William Schultz, taxicab driver, and ordered him to drive around the city for two hours at the point of two guns.

The bandit told Schultz that he had served time in both Folsom and San Quentin and that he was a "bad man."

Near the Fleishacker pool the bandit halted the taxicab, ordering Schultz to get out. The taxi man made a pass for the gun, and the bandit fired a shot as he drove away.

The cab was later found abandoned on the Embarcadero.

Police Chief Frank Love and Officer Thomas Kearney broadcast the following description of the desperado:

About 39; 5 feet, 10 inches tall; weight, 140 pounds; dark hair and coat; blue shirt open at the collar; blue overalls.

A WORD TO THE VOTERS:

Since my election in 1926 I have worked in every way possible to make San Mateo County an attractive and safe place in which to do business, establish homes, and raise families. I have had in mind not alone those born and residing here, but also the commuter (those thousands of men and women who work in San Francisco businesses and spend their money here).

I have worked since 1926 to adjust our County Government Bill so that we would lose nothing in service, but would keep costs down.

I have voted for many bills, affecting the welfare of women and children.

In the 1931 session I voted for TWENTY-EIGHT LABOR BILLS AND AGAINST NINE.

Committees are most important, and I have had the best. Much work is done in committee and I have spent long hours there.

My experience and seniority entitle me to good senate committees.

THE GROWTH OF THE REDWOOD CITY DISTRICT and increase in property values, depends largely upon the location of industrial plants on our harbor and waterfront, and my votes have made possible, and have encouraged such development.

ROAD CONDITIONS GOOD TO MOST OF VACATION SPOTS

Travel conditions on roads leading to the Russian river area are excellent. There is pavement via Redwood highway, U. S. 101, from Sausalito through San Rafael to Petaluma and Cotati. Motorists bound for river points in the vicinity of Healdsburg continue on U. S. 101. Travel to the lower river points, such as Guerneville and Monte Rio, leaves U. S. 101 at Cotati. Pavement continues through Sebastopol, Freestone, Occidental and to Monte Rio. Motorists wishing to reach Guerneville will continue on pavement from Sebastopol by way of Forestville to Guerneville. Rio Nido is reached by following pavement from Guerneville to Rio Nido. Another available route is over pavement from Petaluma via Two Rock, Bloomfield and Valley Ford to Freestone and Occidental.

The Yuba Pass route offers good pavement to Grass Valley and Nevada City, followed by good oiled road to Downville. Work is in progress near Goodyear's Bar, without inconveniencing traffic. Good graded road, somewhat dusty, follows from Downville to Sierra City and over Yuba Pass. Good road, with some dust, leads to Truckee. The road from the end of Yuba Pass to Blairson is also in fair condition.

Resurfacing work has closed the Fish Ranch road, also known as the Clement road, at the Contra Costa county end. The road will remain closed for several weeks. The Tunnel road provides an alternate route.

Although chucky in a few places the road around the rim of Crater Lake is all easily passable. Some road work is in progress. From Medford to Crater Lake there is good oiled macadam surface. Good conditions are also offered by the road from Klamath Falls via Fort Klamath to Crater Lake.

The road from Hollister to The Pinnacles National Monument offers pavement to Tres Pinos, followed by fair gravelled surface, dusty and chucky in spots, to The Pinnacles. Traffic is under control on the last mile, which is narrow and steep. Cars enter on the first 20 minutes of each hour and leave on the last 20 minutes.

Freeholder Gives Talk on Charter

How the proposed charter will place the county government more directly into the hands of the people, and make them less dependent upon the state legislature, was described in a talk given to the Redwood City Exchange Club by Sam H. Winkler, publisher of the Tribune and a member of the board of freeholders.

The speaker compared the setup which would exist under the charter, and the present form of government. He spoke of savings in road costs, through a unified system, which would be made possible by the charter, and of other reforms. He pointed out that the document can be amended at any time by the vote of the people.

Carroll D. Hall was chairman of the meeting, which was held in Hotel Sequoia Tuesday evening.

ASK YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS, THEN VOTE TUESDAY FOR YOUR BEST INTEREST

San Mateo County voters have the opportunity next Tuesday of electing this county's first State Senator.

Certainly this election should be given careful study, because the county needs a man in this post it can depend upon to safeguard the interests of its people.

Aspiring to this new office is one candidate, who has been the legislative delegate of this county at Sacramento for six years. In his plea for promotion to State Senator he says he "stands on his record."

And yet this candidate complains because he is being called to account for his votes during the past six years. Embarrassing questions are being asked him, and why not?

Surely at this particular time voters have a right to know his record. There is no other way to determine whether he is worthy to be promoted to the higher office of State Senator, to which he aspires.

The friends and supporters of WILLIAM CROSBY, the opposing candidate, take no unfair advantage, when they ask these questions:

Would you promote a candidate, who (taking only one instance as an example) voted to saddle on the taxpayers that portion of street paving adjacent to tracks now paid for, and justly so, by street car lines and other railways using our streets? (Such a bill, Senate No. 577, aided by the vote of your present delegate, passed the last legislature and was prevented from becoming law only by the Governor's veto.)

Do you believe such a move could do anything but increase your tax burden?

Does it strike you as significant that an official of a Peninsula street railway company is advocating the election of the delegate in personal letters to San Mateo County voters?

Would you promote a candidate, who told you in his newspaper advertising, that he voted for 28 bills favorable to the workingman's interest, and against nine, when the California State Federation of Labor official record reveals only a total of 20 bills vital to labor were considered at the last session of the legislature?

Would you promote a candidate, who advertised he voted FOR 28 bills essential to the workingman's interest, and AGAINST nine, when the Federation of Labor official record shows he voted FOR only six such bills, AGAINST nine, and was absent when five others came up for vote? (Actually favoring six out of 20.)

Have you analyzed the legislative benefits this county has received in the last six years?

Do you think that a man's record, like a chain, can be any stronger than its many weak links?

Do you want to restore San Mateo County's representation in Sacramento to THIS county and its people?

If you do —

THRIFT TUESDAY HAILED AS NOTEWORTHY EVENT BY MERCHANTS OF CITY

Redwood City's first Thrift Tuesday was a remarkable success. It was complete proof of the fact that the public's pocketbook is still ready to respond to outstanding mercantile events.

Every business which took part in Thrift Tuesday had an increase of from 10 to 50 per cent in volume. A number of stores were so busy that it was difficult to handle the trade without extra help.

Not only was it a big day for Redwood City shoppers, but shoppers were present from Palo Alto, Menlo Park, North Fair Oaks, Atherton, Woodside, Emerald Lake, San Carlos, Belmont, San Mateo, and the coastside.

Many customers congratulated the merchants on the wide-awake plan.

Thrift day will be continued every Tuesday. The advertising announcements of those participating will be found in each Monday evening's issue of the Redwood City Tribune.

It is urged that shoppers come out in the forenoon next week if possible. Some of the most attractive specials were exhausted yesterday before noon. Next week the merchants will endeavor to have enough of each special on hand for the entire day, but the public is urged to shop in the morning if convenient.

SCOUTS TO RESUME ACTIVITIES IN SEPTEMBER

Miss Ruth Jaynes, director of Girl Scouts for Sequoia district, will remain at Camp Chaparral in Big Basin until September when local activities will be resumed. A training course is planned for the latter part of the month, but definite plans will not be made until Miss Jaynes' return.

When You Vote Tuesday CONSIDER THESE And You Can't Go Wrong

Tuesday San Mateo County will go to the polls to fill several important county offices, but none more so than that of superior judge.

So closely bound up is the superior court with the life and home of every resident, that the selection of a man to fill this high post should be given more than ordinary consideration. There might be many ways of analyzing an aspirant to this post, but there are only six around which your decision should center.

We urge you to make your comparisons and your ultimate selection after you have considered the following six points of qualifications

1. CHARACTER. Has the candidate seeking this office the integrity and unimpeachable character so essential to keep the superior court of our county above reproach?

2. ABILITY. Has the candidate the necessary ability to properly administer a superior court from the standpoint of legal education and training?

3. TEMPERAMENT. Has the candidate the temperament you would expect of a superior judge? The ability to administer justice fairly and impartially, when emotional appeal might make another course more popular?

4. EXPERIENCE. Has the candidate had sufficient experience to meet on a common ground, master legal minds who may come into his court, and in so doing safeguard the layman, less familiar with legal procedure, from any sacrifice of his rights to justice and fair dealing?

5. HUMANITARIANISM. Has the candidate that sense of justice and mercy that comes with long association with the trials and tribulations of human existence?

6. BUSINESS JUDGMENT. Has the candidate that business sense so necessary in the administration of many business affairs he may be called upon to untangle? Has he the economic understanding that will protect the material interests of his people?

After you have made your analysis upon the basis offered above, we are convinced that your choice will be unanimous, that you will select the one man who has proved to you through the years he meets the requirements fully, and—

He has organized civic, business and veterans' organizations, and has worked with them in the promotion of movements for the benefit of the entire county. He is a veteran of the Spanish-American and the World Wars, and is widely known for his interest in veterans' activities. Colonel Peterson is one of the county's best-known business men.

As his campaign drew to a close today Colonel Peterson, in discussing his plans, should be chosen to represent this county in the assembly, said:

"If the people of this county send me to the assembly they will do so knowing I am an experienced legislator, an advocate of all the people and their interests, and one who will be aggressive in achieving recognition for this county."

"In seeking this office I create no issues, I promise no pots of gold at the end of the rainbow, but I do pledge that if elected I shall always meet every issue squarely, I will not pussyfoot and I will never forget the people who send me to Sacramento."

Jimmy Densmore, Erie, Pa., pitcher, tried an "iron man" stunt of pitching both games in a double-header with South Bend, but lost the second game.

WISE EARLY BIRD

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. — "The early bird gets the worm," but here's one that gets his pancakes. Every morning a certain redbird taps energetically and persistently at the window of George C. ASSEMBLYMAN

HE STANDS FOR:

1.—Public Hearings on the County Government Bill.

Until San Mateo County adopts a charter form of government, the salaries of county officials, the number of clerks and deputies is established by the legislature. This item represented nearly four cents in the county tax rate last year. The schools and the board of supervisors are required by law to hold public budget hearings, and Harrison W. Call proposes to hold public hearings on the county government bill where the voice of the taxpayer may be heard.

2.—Reduction of State Expenditures.

The rising tide of state expenditures is entirely out of proportion to the state income. The legislature will face a deficit for the next biennium. The budget must be balanced by reducing expenditures.

3.—Revision of the State Tax System.

The state tax system was designed in 1910 to collect some $15,000,000. It now collects more than 10 times that amount. In 1917 and again in 1928 we have had special tax commissions to investigate the gross irregularities which have grown up with the present system. Their recommendations have been given scant consideration. Sound reasoning, scientific study and calm judgment must prevail and Harrison W. Call is the man equipped by training and experience to face the emergency.

Cherokees to Open Against Santa Cruz Here on Sept. 9

By EL THOMAS

Sixty football candidates at Sequoia Union High School began practice Monday under Coach Leonard Casanova and Albert Terremere for a campaign which starts against Santa Cruz high school here Admission Day and is aimed at a Peninsula Athletic League schedule opening at Burlingame October 1.

Two dozen gridders, mostly veterans, turned out of their own accord yesterday before the first official call and were joined by 35 others in the initial workout this afternoon.

Replacement of losses in the line, chiefly at the ends, and development of a fast backfield built on an experienced foundation is the problem, in a nutshell, which confronts the Cherokee mentors.

Ends Are Lacking
Capt. Jim Rhoda, tackle; Jens Bugge and Leo LeRoy, ends; Roland Craven, fullback, and four substitute wingmen are the chief figures who are missing as the 1932 season gets under way.

Without stopping to survey the damage done by graduation, however, Coach Casanova and Terremere immediately picked up where their spring practice work left off and will start intensively to prepare for the opening game two weeks in the offing.

The 1932 squad is supplied with veterans, including Eno Ferrando, quarterback; Roy McQuilkin, Charlie Preston, halfbacks; Lee Sterling and Max Green, guards; George Rhoda, tackle; Walter Worrell, center, and several others of proven ability.

Development of a number of new prospects to fill the vacancies is a big job. There are Jimmy McGuire, quarterback and punter; Bud Lewis, fullback; George Junker, halfback; Bullivant and Roman, ends; Garbarino, guard, and others who have shown possibilities in spring practice and whose improvement will be watched during the next two weeks before a first string is chosen.

Night Game Scheduled
A new opponent appearing on the Sequoia preliminary schedule of five games is Lodi high school. The Cherokees will play the Lodi Flames there in a night game October 7, the week before opening the P.A.L.

Five of Sequoia's nine games, including the first two league games with San Mateo at Palo Alto, will be played at home.

The complete Sequoia schedule follows:
Sept. 9—Santa Cruz here.
Sept. 17—Balboa there.
Sept. 23—Menlo here.
Sept. 30—Commerce here.
Oct. 7—Lodi there (night).
Oct. 14—Burlingame there.
Oct. 21—San Jose there.
Oct. 28—Open.
Nov. 4—San Mateo here.
Nov. 11—Palo Alto here.
Denotes league game.

The complete Peninsula Athletic League schedule:
October 14—Sequoia at Burlingame.
October 21—San Mateo at Palo Alto; Sequoia at San Jose.
October 27—Burlingame at Palo Alto; San Jose at San Mateo.
November 4—Burlingame at San Jose; Sequoia at San Mateo.
November 11—Burlingame at San Mateo; Palo Alto at Sequoia.
November 18—San Jose at Palo Alto.

WOMEN ESCAPE IN AUTO CRASH

Two San Francisco women and another from New York escaped with minor bruises and shock when an automobile skidded in loose gravel on a turn in the Skyline boulevard near the Sawyer Camp road at 10 o'clock Sunday and overturned.

The women were Mrs. John Josten, 32 Cervantes boulevard, San Francisco; Mrs. F. M. Bryson, New York, and Mrs. J. M. Meredith, 3045 Jackson street, San Francisco. State Officer Jack Quinlan investigated the mishap and filed a report with the bureau in Redwood City.

Writ Orders Clerk To Print Indexes

Superior Judge Franklin Swart Monday issued an alternative writ of mandate ordering County Clerk Elmore B. Hinman to "print and issue" the number of precinct indexes required by law.

In event of failure to comply, Hinman is to appear before the court on September 8 to show cause why he has failed to do so. The county clerk is having the precinct lists photographed instead of printed. As this work is well under way, it will be continued so that the lists will be ready for the August primary.

Bovs Hit by Auto Incur Broken Bones

SAN CARLOS, Aug. 23—Frank Quinn Jr., 8, incurred a broken arm, and Edward Quinn, 6, a broken leg, when they were hit by an automobile at Grass Valley Sunday night, it became known here today. They were walking across a street, hand in hand, at the time. The boys are the sons of Frank S. Quinn, highway patrol inspector, and Mrs. Quinn, and the grandsons of B. A. Lindberg, city treasurer.

MAN CAUGHT IN BURGLAR CHASE

SAN MATEO, Aug. 22—A suspected burglar was captured early today by San Mateo police after a several blocks chase during which Police Officer Everett Pence fired several shots into the air.

The man gave the name of Harry L. Powell and his residence as San Francisco.

Chris Politos, 148 B street, proprietor of a restaurant, walked back past the place early today after closing up.

He saw a melon in the window which he meant to put in the ice box, and went back to the place.

Politos shouted for help, and Officer Pence came on the run. The chase led through the Central School grounds. Finally Pence opened fire, and Powell halted. He was booked for burglary.

S. M. J. C. Has 11 Veterans For Football

With a turnout of 85, Coach Muris McFadden starts his San Mateo Junior College football practice this week with 11 veterans on hand to face the toughest schedule in the school's history.

Capt. Gordon Head, Joe Ribarsky, Jake Galinski, Bill Morrison, Ralph Johnson, Frank Shots, Des Sullivan, Bill Hinkins, Bill Marsh, Jim Smith, and Sorrell are the returning lettermen.

Stanford, California, Santa Clara and St. Mary's freshman teams are on the Bulldog schedule, which follows:

Sept. 10—San Francisco State at Burlingame.
Sept. 17—St. Mary's Frosh at Burlingame.
Sept. 24—California Frosh at Berkeley.
Oct. 4—Marin at Kentfield.
Oct. 8—Stanford Frosh at Stanford.

Oct. 22—Santa Clara Frosh at Burlingame.
Oct. 29—Santa Rosa J. C. at Burlingame.
Nov. 5—Modesto J. C. at Burlingame.
Nov. 12—Menlo J. C. (Probably in S. F.)
Nov. 24—Sacramento J. C. at Sacramento.
Conference games.

A. W. Ohlemacher, who has been umpiring recreation ball games at Columbus, O., for 10 years, never argues with the players—he is deaf and dumb.

Coach Shifts Lee Sterling To Left Wing

Starting out immediately on his job of rebuilding the line of the Sequoia high school football team and finding a fullback, Coach Leonard Casanova yesterday switched Lee Sterling from a guard berth to left end and made other changes which give some indication of his plans for a first string this fall.

Sterling, a hard charger and demon tackler, is a good man in the line wherever he is put, and this year there is no more logical place for him than at one of the ends.

Working at the other wing was Harold Kniveton, one of a half dozen end candidates last year, and ends on the second team were Tom Judge and Gordon Keller.

Removal of Sterling to end leaves Andy Garbarino and Walt Jelen at the guard berths among the men who are now on for practice. Second string guards are Bud Durman and Chris Kane.

Solution of the tackle problem has been found in switching Bob Svihus from center to right tackle, with George Rhoda at the other end. Walt Worrell is chief snap-per-back at this time, with Bill Ambrose dividing his attention between center and relief, tackle. Hoenck and Ralph Rhoda are reserves.

While there are several backfield veterans on hand, there is a decided scarcity of material for the fullback berth. John Costa, a halfback, went through signals at last yesterday, but it is apparent that Bud Lewis or some other prospect will be tried out. If none are found, it is probably that Roy McQuilkin will be changed over from half.

Men now on the ground for backfield berths are Eno Ferrando and Jim McGuire, quarterbacks, and Junker, halfback, in addition to several new men. These include Don Krause, halfback transfer from Lowell high; Dan Daman, fullback transfer, and Morton Schmidt, halfback.

Possibilities for punters this year are Charlie Preston, who is not yet out, and McGuire. Lewis is the best prospect as a forward passer, with McQuilkin showing some ability in that line.

Mrs. Buhler Heads Circle For Next Year

McKinley Circle has elected Mrs. J. A. Buhler as president and Mrs. Harry Reed secretary-treasurer for the next year. The first meeting this fall was held at the home of the president.

With the reorganization of the circle this year the territory of its membership has been enlarged to include all those within the district bounded by James avenue south to Atherton and Woodside and North Fair Oaks.

Meetings will be held on the second Wednesday of the month. The next will be at the home of Mrs. Aruna Davies on Diller street, September 14.

Salaries Target Of Tax Leaguers

San Mateo Council Is Urged to Reduce Budget $30,000

SAN MATEO, Aug. 23—Headed by R. P. Schwerin, members of the San Mateo Tax Reduction League appeared before the city council here last night and recommended reduction in the city budget totaling $30,000.

The proposed slash would hit salaries in the police, fire, street and park departments and would cut $1,200 from the city's printing bill.

Transfer of the upkeep of park lands in San Mateo Park to a special district at a saving of $5,200 to the city and formation of a downtown lighting district at a reduction of $800 were other moves suggested by the league.

Cutting of $5,330 from the library fund and reduction in salary or dismissal of a deputy in the city treasurer's office were also proposed.

City Manager E. P. Wiley announced that the tentative budget stands at $161,035 and that most of the reductions asked by the league had already been proposed by himself.

The city council took the recommendations of the league under advisement without discussion.

Schilling Girl Badly Hurt in Fall Off Horse

Victim Is Carried on Stretcher Through Inyo Wilderness

Bearing up with Spartan-like courage, Miss Elsa Schilling of Woodside, daughter of August Schilling, spice and coffee magnate, was brought to Stanford Hospital in San Francisco Sunday suffering from a broken pelvis and other injuries incurred Wednesday afternoon when thrown over a cliff by her horse.

She and Miss Rosalee Venable, 1445 Greenwich street, San Francisco, were packing into an Inyo county fastness when the mishap occurred.

Horse Found Riderless
Miss Schilling's mount had lagged behind, and later galloped up riderless. Miss Venable backtracked, and found the heinous unconscious on a bed of rocks some 30 feet below.

With blankets and poles, the Mexican guides improvised a stretcher and began the perilous descent to Independence. They carried the stretcher for 1½ hours through seldom used trails to reach the nearest highway.

Regaining consciousness, Miss Schilling urged them on while her body was wracked with pain.

Forest Rangers Assist
Forest rangers came on them in the fourth hour. And while two of them went on ahead to telephone to Independence for aid, the others remained to relieve the exhausted stretcher bearers. From Independence more volunteers, headed by Dr. B. E. Nichols, went out.

Dr. Walter Schilling, brother of Miss Schilling, and Dr. L. Roscoe Chandler had, meanwhile, gone to several new men. These include Don Krause, halfback transfer from Lowell high; Dan Daman, fullback transfer, and Morton Schmidt, halfback.

UNLICENSED BUILDERS FINED $50

S. F. Men Accused in Justice Court by State Officer

Convicted of unlawfully acting in the capacity of contractors in constructing a building at Cuesta La Honda, Harold Zelinsky and Harold Doane of San Francisco Monday were given fines of $50 and the sentences were suspended for six months by Justice of the Peace Edward I. McAuliffe here this morning.

The conviction was the first obtained in Redwood City as a result of the campaign which the San Mateo County Building Industries' Association is waging against unlicensed contractors operating in the county.

The two San Franciscans were specifically charged with contracting for the construction of a building in Cuesta La Honda for Miss Bertha Creighton at a cost of $1000.

The charges were brought by Walter W. Krauter, inspector and registrar of contractors for the state department of professional and vocational standards, San Francisco district. Assisting in the prosecution of the case was James Fellom, inspector for the San Jose district.

P. E. Brand of Redwood City, a director of the county building trades association, and City Building Inspector Con Drathman were present at the hearing.

Training at Tanfo Opens For Sept. 22

Training is on at the Tanforan race course for the fall meeting to open September 22. A number of important establishments have arrived and the conditions of the horses lost no time in saddling them for morning gallops. Judging from the forward condition of the runners there will be ample racing material when the bugle calls the race field to the post.

Among the pioneers for the period of racing is the Piedmont stable of Leonard C. Hammond, with some well known thoroughbreds. The ever popular Hey Diddle Diddle, which has made records at several tracks, is the star of this string. By the Epsom Derby dinner Sunstar the horse with the nursery rhyme name goes forth invariably in the best company.

Hammond, a prominent lumber man of San Francisco, has a farm at Woodside and has been trying his luck at turning out home-bred. In another season he expects to have some of his own colts and fillies at the races.

JUDGE BUCK LONG HAS GIVEN HONOR TO SUPERIOR BENCH

Those who are opposing Judge Buck on account of his age should remember that Von Hindenburg, president of the German republic, eighty-five years old, is managing the affairs of that troublesome country with amazing energy and ability. It should not be forgotten that Alfred Tennyson, the able English poet, wrote "Crossing the Bar," his best poem, at the age of nearly eighty-two.

Old age cannot be urged against Judge Buck for he still does two men's work daily. Never was he so mentally alert or so physically sound. His decisions are clear and able, showing a wonderful legal grasp of the cases coming before him. He functions with the full power of a man of fifty.

Judge Buck has sufficient energy for many more years of service on the bench. He has honored the bench and should be retained in his present position.

FRANKLIN SWART HAS EARNED FULL TERM ON COURT BENCH

The electorate of San Mateo county is urged to vote for Franklin Swart for judge of Department Number Two of the superior court. The year that Mr. Swart has served on the bench has demonstrated his fitness, fairness and ability for the position. His decisions have been honest, impartial and just, both layman and lawyer agreeing that Mr. Swart has made good.

The fact that he has shown his fitness in the year on the bench has earned him the right to a full term. He has poise, judicial temperament and legal knowledge that peculiarly qualifies him for the position he seeks.

Retain Mr. Swart in Department Number Two. The people will not err in doing so.

MILLINGTON PLEDGES HIMSELF TO SUPPORT HARBOR PROJECT

Wayne R. Millington, Redwood City attorney, candidate for the office of assemblyman from San Mateo county, rests his campaign upon a re-affirmance of the principles of progress outlined in his platform.

"The harbor is an issue," he said. "While it is true that San Mateo county may unite in a harbor district the fact remains it has not done so. Harbor development is a proposition too gigantic to be undertaken alone by our county. As modern highways have outgrown the horse and buggy stage and become a matter of state-wide concern so has the principle of one county harbor development been found inadequate. The only answer is state aid.

"This brings us to realize and appreciate the necessity and value of co-operation with the adjoining counties of Santa Clara, San Francisco and Santa Cruz and in fact all those interior counties clearing their products through San Francisco Bay. Their interest is our interest; our harbor is their outlet.

"San Mateo county cannot afford to endorse a policy of isolation. We have one vote of eighty in the assembly and one of forty in the state senate. Our policy must be one of co-operation with all progressive policies that we may secure all for San Mateo county that is possible."

Vote for Wayne R. Millington!

CONGRESSMAN FREE DESERVES ANOTHER TERM IN CONGRESS

By long experience in Congress, Arthur M. Free has become a valuable asset for the Eighth Congressional District in securing legislation that no new man could secure. He is a seasoned statesman, well liked in Washington and moreover a personal friend of President Herbert Hoover. Mr. Free can do more for his constituents than an inexperienced congressman. Why change? Is there any reason for so doing, particularly at this time when seasoned men are required at Washington to legislate for the best interests of the sorely distressed people, suffering from economic conditions brought on as a result of the World War?

We want a man like Mr. Free at Washington, a man who knows conditions and who has the ability and desire to work for his constituents.

The record of Mr. Free in the lower house of Congress is without a flaw. It is good. It is outstanding and a splendid monument to his worth for us.

Some of his opponents in the current campaign are concentrating on but one issue. They have seized upon liquor as their main argument for election, neglecting other and more vital matters.

Mr. Free recognizes the importance of the liquor problem; he has emphatically given his support to the nation-wide move for resubmission and definitely is not straddling the issue. But he realizes also that California and the nation must solve unemployment, trade stagnation and the other grave aspects of the economic depression as well as prohibition.

POOLE SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED AT POLLS THIS NEXT TUESDAY

John W. Poole, candidate for supervisor of the Third Township, deserves well at the hands of the voters and taxpayers of the Third Road District. He has been a faithful servant, trustworthy and efficient. Keep him in office by giving him a large vote on next Tuesday.

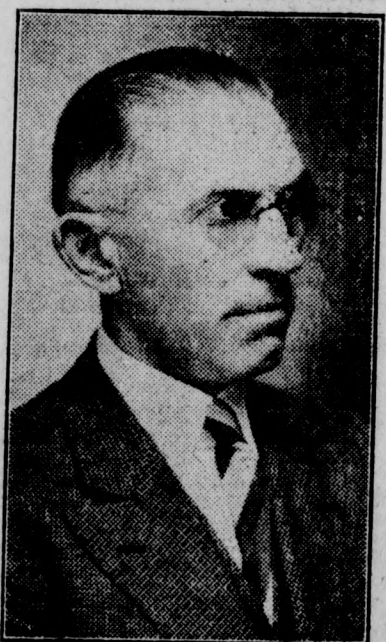

Supervisor Poole has been highly praised for the efficient manner in which he has handled the affairs of his district. Investigations of expenditures of funds throughout the county have shown that the Third Township has received the fullest returns for monies expended.

John Poole has no apologies to make on his record as supervisor, nor does he claim to have been absolutely perfect. Retention of Mr. Poole by virtue of his experience will give him a greater power to better serve you. He has contributed much to the orderly upbuilding of the Third Township.

Retain John W. Poole in office. It will pay you to do so. Let his vote next Tuesday be overwhelming.

PARKMAN RECORD SHOULD WIN HIM PROMOTION TO SENATE

It is customary for the people to promote a faithful public servant and the voters of San Mateo county are going to advance Harry L. Parkman from the assembly to the senate on Tuesday next. Mr. Parkman is a seasoned legislator, having served three terms in the assembly from this county. He now seeks a place in the senate, a position he has earned by the good work he has done in the lower house during his long years of service. Mr. Parkman is efficient, able and popular, and an official who can accomplish a great deal for the county in the senate owing to his long experience at Sacramento. His vote should be overwhelming.

by

WILLIS G.

FROST SUPERVISOR

There is something radically wrong with our county government.

Give San Mateo County's government back to the people. San Mateo County has been in the hands of the "BIG THREE" long enough.

Wipe out the "BIG THREE."

Wipe out the "BIG THREE" that voted for the illegal road tax.

Wipe out the "BIG THREE" who have a strangle grip on the county road fund.

Wipe out the "BIG THREE" who gave an outside engineer over $40,000 for services on the North Fair Oaks Sanitary District, when the law is such that the county engineer could have been appointed on the work at no additional cost to the taxpayers.

Wipe out the "BIG THREE" who have been employing machinery and men from outside of San Mateo County, while our own available machinery and men are idle.

Wipe out the "BIG THREE" who have been buying rock outside the county at no lower cost than could be purchased at home.

Wipe out the "BIG THREE" that have failed to rectify the inefficient management of the county social service commission.

Clean up the political road mess. Cut your tax bill. Start with a clean slate. Elect Mr. Frost who will save the taxpayers over $100,000 a year by the unified road plan.

Put into the office of supervisor Mr. Willis G. Frost, an engineer with over twenty years of experience as civil engineer on railroad, drainage and highway projects.

Elect Mr. Frost supervisor, a man who favors a unified road plan which will prevent $353,562.00 from being squandered without program, budget, accounting control or unit cost system.

Give San Mateo County a new deal. Wipe out the "BIG THREE."

SOUTHERN SAN MATEO COUNTY HAS RIGHT TO ALPINE ROAD

We glory in the spunk of Governor James Rolph in his attitude towards the Alpine Road. The governor is to be commended for his outspoken approval of the action of the State Highway Commission in allocating funds to construct six miles of road from the Skyline to Portola over what is known as the Alpine Road. His firmness in this matter is encouraging in these days of spineless officials who are afraid to act in a crisis, fearing to offend some one. Not so with Jim Rolph. When he knows he's right he just strikes out from the shoulder.

The people of the southern end of San Mateo county and the northern portion of Santa Clara are entitled to this proposed thoroughfare which connects with the Skyline and gives this section an entrance to the boulevard. Other sections of the county have access to the Skyline. Why shouldn't the residents of this locality have one?

Rolph is aware of this fact and wants to see justice done. He has spoken right out on the subject in no uncertain language. More power to him.

ate civil engineer with 25 years of active practice in all branches of engineering, including bridge, highway, railroad, irrigation and drainage. From 1911 to 1916 I was locating and supervising engineer on highway construction in this county.

"I am a taxpayer in this district and have lived here the greater part of the time since 1911 and continuously for the last 12 years.

"Everything except the cost of government has been reduced. The greatest opportunity we have to aid in reducing the cost of our county government is in voting for the candidate for the office of supervisor who favors a unified road plan and has pledged himself to work for its adoption. Under the present five unit plan, each supervisor has charge of construction of roads and the expenditure of road tax money in his own district. The mere fact that a candidate succeeds in being elected to the office of supervisor does not qualify him as a highway engineer. Under a unified road plan the whole county would be one district with a competent highway engineer in charge of surveys, plans, estimates, specifications and construction. The office of highway engineer would be combined with the office of county surveyor, the same official in charge of both departments.

"I favor a unified road plan for San Mateo county because it will positively reduce our county road taxes at least one third and give us more permanent roads for less money.

"In view of the foregoing, is it not logical to elect a man of engineering training and experience to pass upon the expenditure of our tax money? If you agree with me I will appreciate your support."

Alfred E. Winter, who has withdrawn from the supervisory race, said today: "Although my name will appear on the ballot, I have definitely withdrawn from the supervisor contest in the 3rd township. Furthermore, I am heartily in favor of the election of Willis G. Frost, and ask my friends and supporters to cast their votes for him on August 30."

FORBES WILL FILE

Lina Forbes, 51, of 746 Baden avenue, South San Francisco, today filed for probate the will of Willis G. Forbes, who died in South San Francisco on July 5. The estate will not exceed $6000. Forbes' will was written May 28.

through Stanford university, passed the state bar examinations and has been practicing entirely in this county for the past several years.

"Taxation," he declares, "is the paramount issue of this campaign. If the state goes beyond the corporation tax for income, the small property owner must be protected.

"The present state tax system bears no relation to the need of the state for funds. In 'fat years' surpluses pile up in the state treasury and encourage spending; in 'lean years' the income is drastically curtailed when needed most.

"I shall vote, if elected, to reduce state expenditures to the minimum and to equalize the tax burden.

"We all favor improvement of San Mateo county's water front, but assistance for that project must come first from Congress, then from the local harbor district, yet to be formed, in compliance with the terms of the law adopted by the last legislature."

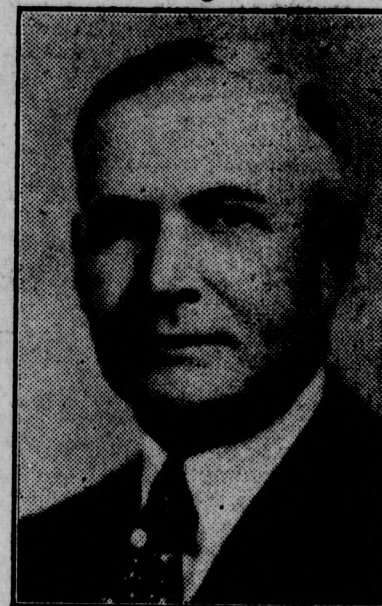

MISS MEDINE MARRIED

TO W. A. MURDOCK
The marriage of Miss Sue Frances Medine of New Orleans and William Archibald Murdock took place at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. C. E. Knight, and Mr. Knight, on August 13. The Rev. Jesse R. Rudkin, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdock are in Santa Cruz for their wedding trip.
